(c) if so, what steps Government have taken/propose to take to protect the workers from exploitation by the employers in this sector; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI OSCAR FERNANDES): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) It is an established practice in organized sector to issue appointment letters to workman. But many establishments in unorganized sector are not following this established practice. However, under Contract Labour (Regulation & Abolition) Act it is the statutory responsibility of the employers to issue employment cards to Contract Labours. Whenever violations are detected, efforts are made to rectify the irregularities failing which prosecution cases are launched against defaulting employers.
